VOL. XXVIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1901, 9 A. M.

NO. 89

MONTICELLO.

Miss Mamie Crawford entertained the young people Monday evening.

Several wells have been shot during the past week with no apparent results. Ben Powell is building a residence on Elk Valley about one mile from town. Mr. Sigall, of Burnside, father of Mrs. Wm. Cook, of this place, died there of smallpox Sunday.

Tom Lanier sold his farm to J. D. Eads and Alfred and Walter for $9,500 and will move his family to Boyle.

Mr. B. R. Percy and Miss Ida M. Smith, of Slickford, were married at the Hotel Ramsey Saturday morning. The Standard Oil Company have leased about 1,800 acres on Beaver Creek in the Western part of the county.

Mrs. W. S. Stone, president of the 11th district of the W. C. T. U., is here assisting the organization of a juvenile society.

Mrs. Burdette Huffaker and children will join Mr. Huffaker at Lawrenceburg in a few days. Marshall Gillespie, of Plano, Texas, is visiting his parents here.

Messieurs W. W. Kendrick and S. H. Berry were at home to their friends Saturday evening. Quite a number enjoyed their hospitality and report a delightful evening.

Mrs. Emma Oatts gave a dining last week and the following were present: Mrs. Barry, Misses Frances Berry and Susie Oatts, Mr. George Backer, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Berwald and Mrs. and Mrs. Ben P. Hardin.

Wm. McDonough is back from Louisville. John Lee Ingram has returned from the South, where he took two car loads of mail. The friends of Mr. Perk Ingram will be sorry to hear that he is almost blind, caused by cataracts over his eyelids.

Messrs. Mitt and Eb. Jones spent several days with relatives here. Ed Jones, of Kansas City, was with home-folks last week. Monte Fox, of Boyle, was here on business several days. Owen Miller and Jesse F. Cook, of Lexington, spent a week among friends and relatives.

Shelby Hagan has moved to town to educate his children. Hiram Hall, of Cleburne, Texas, and Mrs. George E. Stoud, of Liberty, are at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Juan Hall. Miss Lida Phillips is attending school in Henderson. Mrs. Thompson Ramsey is improving after an illness of six months.

Sidney Goldard left yesterday for Birdpoint. Mr. Edward Sanders has been quite sick for several days. Misses Flora Rankin, Polly Tuggle and Ethel Cooper have matriculated at the Monticello High School. Miss Mamie Baker, after an extended visit to her brother and wife, has returned to her home in Columbia.

Stephens Bros. arrived last week and will commence drilling on the Ingram farm at once. Several new wells have been drilled on Beaver Creek with some show of oil. A new well on Oster Creek drilled recently promises better prospects than any in the county so far. George Backer has one well on the Sandusky farm which yields 25 barrels daily and a M. Williams three others which yield 50, 10 and 10, respectively.

KINGSVILLE.

Quite an interesting meeting is being held at the Methodist church, Rev. Thomson, the regular pastor, is being assisted by Rev. Powers.

The Hustonville Miners have at last consented to make their appearance here, which the writer thinks goes more to prove than anything else how vast the town has improved.

We confounded the 3rd day with the 3rd Sunday of the month last week in alluding to the arrival of the Rev. Dr. Allen, of Daeville. He is to preach for the Christian church on the 3rd Sunday of each month. Our town has reason to be proud indeed of such a preacher.

There are many new comers to our town and vicinity. Mrs. McIntosh, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. Taylor. Miss Gertrude Pennybacker is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. D. Dineen, at Somerset. Jesse D. Wearon, of your city, was a guest at the Pennybacker Hotel last Sunday. Ed McCarty has returned home from a visit to relatives at Pineville. Harvey Acton is the guest of his brother, Dr. J. W. Acton, who has been very ill with tonsillitis, but is now convalescing. Master John McCarty has been quite sick, but is improving. Hon. Harvey Helm, of Stanford, was here on business last week. Ed Carey spent Sunday here with his mother and sister. Sebastian Chevolette was at home from his work on the C. S. last week. Post District was down from Moreland Tuesday.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and Little Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

BRODHEAD.

Our new doctor, J. F. Watson, is riding almost every night. He has one samassee two or three miles out of town.

The roster supper at the Masonic lodge room Saturday night was well attended by the Mt. Vernon brethren of P. & A. M.

Young Mr. Ponder and Miss Florence Weiskler, will be united in matrimony before this communication will be read by the public.

We seem to have an epidemic of grip or some kind of tooth or throat trouble among our people and nearly every one is coughing and complaining.

Mr. Jones, of Livingston, bought a two-year-old male of Wm. Hysinger for $55 and one of P. Francisco for $65. Miss Francisco bought a plug horse of Dick Rigby for $30.

Mrs. Perkins, of Pine Lick, is spending a few days at Brodhead. Miss Amy Pike has entered Prof. Ewer's school at Mt. Vernon. George Pike, of Livingston, was with us last Monday night.

Jack Pike, of Mt. Vernon, is visiting relatives at this place. Rev. A. J. Pike returned from Marion county Monday. Rev. Hendrickson, of this place, has gone to Indiana to spend a few weeks.

D. E. Davis, of Lancaster, came up on last Monday's train and took back with him one of our most accomplished and lovable young belles, Miss Maggie Bethurum, Mrs. Pike officiating. Mrs. Mary Collier, our milliner, went to Mt. Vernon Sunday. Miss Della Collier entered college at Mt. Vernon this week.

Ben Pike went to Mt. Vernon Tuesday to put his sister in school. Mrs. W. G. Tharpe, who has been an invalid for some months, is no better at this writing. Robert Wilton, who has been sick for four weeks with typhus fever, is convalescent. Miss Susie Hilton, who has been on a 10-days' visit to the family of Rev. Livingston, has returned home, looking much refreshed.

Lee Coffey, of the Coffey neighborhood, is reported very sick. J. T. Stewart, of Roundstone, was in town Tuesday. Mr. A. R. Hendrickson, so struck on Mt. Vernon that he is compelled to make a trip once a week.

Mr. Joseph Purcell and Mrs. Annie Shumate, of our town, left on Wednesday's train to visit friends and relatives at Lancaster. Mrs. J. W. Tate has just returned from visiting Mr. Bogus Phillips' family at Wildie.

Mr. J. W. Tate, of our town, has a very sick child. Mr. Moore Brown is the night owl at the depot this week. Mrs. Vermillion, of Daeville, is at the bedside of her sick mother, Mrs. W. G. Tharpe, this week.

Miss Louisa, of Brodhead's, most accomplished business young ladies, paid a visit to her home people Sunday. W. H. Sowder, one of our best citizens and business men, who has been sick for a few days, is out again today, looking much better. Misses Nanette and Susie Yaden, both of whom have been sick for a week, are up again.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Maj. Horace Scott, aged 62, is dead in Mercer.

Charles Murphy, of Marion county, drank carbolic acid thinking it was whiskey, and died.

In a fight in Perry county Jack Cornett was killed and Herman Holbrook and James Singleton wounded.

The Pittman Coal Co., of Pittsburgh, is preparing to make extensive improvements and open up new veins of coal, which will nearly double their output.

The Oxley-Stava Company, operating mills in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia, has sold out to the Standard Oil Company. The company had a plant at Junction City.

A Middleboro dispatch says: Efforts are being made by the people of Middleboro, Barbourville, Pineville and Manchester to secure the Kentucky-Burgin extension of the Southern railroad from Burgin through these places to Cumberland Gap, instead of by the route to Jefferson. The Southern railroad, which will have a branch extension, has roads from Knoxville to both Jefferson and Middleboro, and could reach this city over either route. Middleboro claims it has reason to believe it will get the road.

It is rumored that the C. & O. R. R. will bring suit against State Hills Officer McCormack for damages resulting from the recent quarantine of Greenup county. The company's trains were compelled to run through Greenup county at the rate of 12 miles an hour without making a stop.

The court of appeals granted a rehearing in the case of Wallace Bishop, sentenced at Covington to be hanged for murder.

Henry C. Hallan, formerly of Covington, is dead in Washington. He practiced law in that city.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Master Keith Willis, of C. O. Springs, made a visit to friends in Richmond.

Our hoop-bolt factory will soon resume operations at the old factory, which will be a useful industry here.

Dr. Robert Redd continues feeble. Mr. Perry King, accompanied J. C. King and family as far as Louisville, as they journeyed to their Western home.

Dr. W. J. Edmiston and Prof. Riggs have embarked in a new enterprise here, that of raising Belgian hares. Here's success to them in their new undertaking.

Rev. Shepherd, of Paint Lick, will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night. He has been called to labor for the coming year for two Sundays each month.

The lowering clouds bespeak an ominous change in our hitherto beautiful weather condition and we are reluctant to give up our sunny days, but 'taint each life some rain must fall, and some days be dark and dreary.

The Rev. Dr. Young delivered a humorous and very entertaining address at the Christian church Wednesday night. While the audience was not as large as it might have been, yet it was attentive and very appreciative.

Mr. W. R. Kelley died at his country home on the Somerset place, after a lingering attack of stomach trouble, together with other complications. He was a quiet, good citizen. A widow and an only daughter survive him.

After spending several days with friends and relatives here, Mrs. Lida Estes and daughter, of McKinney, returned to their home. Will Hansford was mingling with friends here. Mrs. Kate Egbert made a short stay with relatives in Stanford.

Mrs. M. E. Fish and daughter, Miss Allie, are visiting Mrs. Rhinehart, at Livingston. Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Ballou have returned from a visit to relatives in Stanford. Mrs. John Shaw Edmiston has returned to Paint Lick after a pleasant stay with relatives here. Dave Payne has moved to his home in the country and T. J. Clifton has moved to the house rented by Mr. Payne. Mr. Clifton having purchased the property. Miss Jennie Payne has returned from a visit to friends in Livingston. Mr. Robert Edwards made an extended trip to Clay county. Miss Edith of Mt. Vernon, is a pleasant guest of the Misses McWhorter.

One of the deeds of the revolutionary times that was daring and successful was the capture of a British general by a common soldier of the American army, William Barton. This was in 1777. Gen. Robert Prescott had made himself offensive with the Rhode Island Whigs and on the night of July 10, with thirty-eight men in four whale-boats, Barton crossed Narragansett Bay, passed under three British frigates, and landing close to Newport, went to a farmhouse, where Prescott had his headquarters. The guards were surprised, and a negro of the party burst open the door in Prescott's room, by using his head as a battering-ram. The British officer was taken and carried to Washington's headquarters in New Jersey. For this exploit Barton was breveted colonel, and was given a sword by Congress.

A Republican President of the United States attending an annual reunion of Confederate soldiers would be an unprecedented spectacle, but it is one that we shall probably witness at Memphis next May. President McKinley is a generous man and a politician as smooth as they make 'em. As a Senator Vest remarks, "President McKinley has done more to break up the Democratic party in the South than any man." He got the votes of many ex-Confederates at both his first and second election and he is going to play his winning game to the end. —Louisville Times.

And now the story is being put forth that General Dore is none other than Charles Stewart Parnell, the theory being that the great Irish leader is not really dead, but simply left Ireland for South Africa disguised as a priest, on account of that divorce proceeding, and is now engaged in giving the British a few uneasy moments. This at least has the merit of being an artistic lie, even if it is not a plausible one.

One of the finest special trains ever turned out is being built for the annual tour of Mexico in February of the Wah-bash. The party going will comprise people from New York, Philadelphia and other prominent cities. The train will be vestibuled throughout and made up of dining, sleeping, compartment observation and library cars. The travelers will be absent thirty days, and the trip will cover 7,000 miles.

Probably the most valuable stock in the world is that of the London New River Company, of London. There are only 72 original shares, of which 30 are "adventurer's shares," and 36 king's shares, the former commanding higher prices than the latter. A share sold recently for $625. —N. Y. Times.

LANCASTER.

Grip is somewhat prevalent in this community.

Charles W. Frieble has gone to St. Louis on a business trip. The W. C. T. U. have under consideration the establishment of a reading room.

Miss Dove Harris will open a millinery store in the Garrard Hotel block early in February.

The local auxiliary of the C. W. B. M. met with Mrs. R. E. McRoberts Monday afternoon.

Judge J. C. Hemphill was elected councilman at the meeting of the city board Monday night.

It seems the mild weather is not conducive to health, so there is much sickness in this city and vicinity.

The lecturer, Eli Perkins, gave a short, humorous address to the Garrard Graded School Wednesday.

Dr. B. F. Walter has removed from the new hotel building and he and Dr. I. S. Wesley have taken joint apartments over Logan & Robinson's shoe store.

Dr. J. L. McKee was taken quite sick Monday and was not able to conduct the union prayer meeting that night; he was much better Tuesday and returned to Danville.

D. Turner, who was chosen marshal at the resignation of James Pierce about a week before the election, was again tendered the office by the city council on last Monday night.

Judge Wm. M. Duncan, of Louisville, has been here on a short visit to relatives: Misses Tillie Ryan, of Paris, and Mattie Salmon, of Winchester, are guests of their uncle, Elder A. R. Moore.

Eli Perkins, the noted New York lecturer, had a fair attendance at the court-house Wednesday evening and the speaker was given a warm and complimentary introduction by Gov. W. O. Bradley.

Todd Scott, who a few weeks ago lost his son and shortly after his wife, received a telegram Tuesday that his daughter, Lucy, was in a dying condition. She has been for some time at Colorado Springs.

Misses Lillian Kinnard and Mary Gill attended the marriage of A. M. Kinnard and Miss Emma White at Cumberland Gap on the 8th. The groom's brother, W. J. Kinnard, was one of the attendants.

Mrs. M. W. Bender, of Louisville, delivered an illustrated lecture on "Health and Hygiene" in the W. C. T. U. apartments on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Bender is State superintendent of the Flower Mission Department.

H. A. B. Marksbury and son have recently bought about 60,000 pounds of hamp at $5 per 112 pounds. Two car loads of hogs and cattle have been shipped in the last few days by the traders, Sweeney Morgan, Carter and Lawson.

The Presbyterian board of church officers will hold their regular monthly meeting on Saturday night at the residence of W. H. Kinnard. A new feature of the meeting will be the attendance of the deaconesses. This appointment is made if there is no union prayer meeting.

Another death from measles occurred near Paint Lick on last Monday night. Young Bright Newland, son of Jacob Newland, of that vicinity. He had only been ill a short time and his death was supposed to be due to cold contracted in the first stages of the disease. He was 25 years of age.

The Ramsey-Arnold marriage was consummated Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with Miss Meade, of Smithfield, and T. R. Slavia, Miss Rella Arnold and Wade Terrell as attendants. The groom's parents gave an elegant reception at the Ramsey homestead at Paint Lick the same evening.

The hop given on Tuesday night was pronounced very enjoyable by the participants. Messrs. Turley, Smith, Miller, Adams, of Richmond, Clara Hayden, of Nicholasville, Little Webb, of Lexington, Tevis Carpenter, of Stanford, were the young lady visitors. The sumptuous repast spread at the Garrard Hotel for the occasion was said to be delicious in every detail and the guests expressed themselves delighted with the bill of fare.

There will be a mass meeting of public-spirited citizens held here this week to forward a new railroad enterprise. At a recent conference of leading railroad capitalists in Louisville, the route of the Louisville Southern was given chief consideration and Garrard undoubtedly has the interest of these men in her favor. If some inducements are only extended to secure this great boon, it was stated that the modern course of building roads was now to follow a straight line instead of curves and from this it is evident Garrard decidedly has great advantage.

A lane shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

POLITICAL.

Republican leaders have agreed that the $60,000,000 River and Harbor Bill must be reduced at least half. They are afraid of it. It is loaded with "graft" for favored districts.

In a speech delivered at the close of the Jackson Day banquet in Chicago, William Jennings Bryan laid down the scepter of his leadership of the democratic party and retired to private life. He declared that he had never for a moment during the two campaigns in which he went down in overwhelming defeat, placed self-aggrandizement above the principles that he advocated and asked for the people's voice. In view of the fact that he was no longer the standard bearer of the party, that the name of the club whose members he was addressing, be changed from "W. J. Bryan" to that of some democratic saint who had passed away.

THE candidates for the various county offices will meet at the court-house at 10 o'clock Monday morning, county court day. The county committee will hold a meeting at W. S. Burch's office at 1:30 that afternoon.

DANVILLE papers are crowing because their three banks show deposits amounting to $250,000. That's comparatively nothing. One bank here, the Lincoln National, has half that much and nobody has thought enough of the fact to mention it.

CAREY county has a new sheriff. Sheriff J. M. Brown declined to make bond for this year and Judge Telford appointed J. T. Bell to that office.

S. W. FORDY resigned as jailer and Mr. Brown was not in his place. It took a little swapping around to bring about the above, but the change will no doubt prove satisfactory to the Carey people.

OUR suburban town Rowland is without trustees, notwithstanding five gentlemen were elected in November. Some of them "showed up" on the night fixed for organization and the impression prevails that they will not serve. The old trustees have long since thrown up their jobs. In the mean time those who hold the town's vouchers are wondering when pay day will come.

J. BURNS.—A. A. Burns, who lived at Hustonville for years, and who stayed here when P. W. Green ran a livery stable in Stanford, died at Lexington yesterday morning. He had been engaged in business in Lexington for several years and made many friends there by his genial, whole-souled disposition. No closer man ever lived than "Al" Burns and his sudden demise will cause regret wherever he was known.

DISMISSED.—C. W. Lester, former State Inspector and Examiner, has dismissed his libel suit for $5,000 against Mr. W. P. Walton, former editor of this paper, brought in the Whitley circuit court. Mr. Walton withdrew his demurrer to the petition and filed an answer stating that he was misled into the publication; that he had no malice in the matter and no intention of doing Lester an injury.

ELECTED DIRECTORS.—The Lincoln County National Bank elected its old board of directors Tuesday and put in Mr. J. D. Paxton to succeed J. J. Williams, deceased. The First National elected the old board with the exception of Mr. M. J. Miller, of Mt. Vernon, who was succeeded by Mr. James R. Robinson, of Hubble. The latter bank voted to decrease its capital stock to $50,000, which carried by a good majority.

COAL KICKERS.—Hardly a night passes that from five to 25 bushels of coal is not stolen from the freight trains as they pass here and Marshal R. G. Jones is going to make it hot for the gang who does it before long. They got on a car as the train pulled the heavy grade coming from Rowland and from that time until the next morning the grade is reached they kick and throw off coal, while their pals house it as rapidly as possible. It is surprising to know how much coal they can steal that way.

STONE.—Dr. W. D. Stone, one of the best known as well as one of the best citizens of Casey, died at Liberty Monday night of stomach and heart trouble, he, aged about 70. The remains were brought to Hustonville Wednesday afternoon and buried after services by Elder J. C. Montgomery. An enormous crowd attended the funeral, attesting to some extent the esteem in which Dr. Stone was held. A wife and two sons, Messrs. Josh Stone, of Washington City, and Will S. Stone, of Liberty, survive and few wives and sons have mourned the loss of a better husband and father. Dr. Stone was a deacon of the Methodist church and a member of the Masonry. He was in good circumstances.

MYERS.—Mrs. Mary A. Myers died at her home on Danville Avenue last night at 10 o'clock. No arrangements for her funeral have been made.

SHERIFF B. M. OWENS edits a portion of this paper, but the reader who hasn't paid his taxes will find precious little good news in his article on the fourth page.

There will be a meeting of the hop club on Tuesday evening at 7:30. All members are urgently requested to be present as officers are to be elected for the ensuing year.

If we are bound to have a primary would it not be better to have it early? Some soreness will more than likely follow it and it would be a good idea to give abundant time for the wounds to heal.

NEW REAL ESTATE FIRM.—Messrs. J. R. Edmonson and Samuel J. Tatem, of Crab Orchard, have formed a partnership to do a real estate business. Business placed in their hands will be carefully attended to.

THE Lincoln County Medical Society held an interesting meeting here Tuesday. There were a number of able talks and papers. Dr. J. C. Barker was elected president and Dr. L. B. Cook was elected secretary.

LOVERS of good music are looking forward to the coming of the Chicago Glee Club on Friday night, 25th. Both press and public speak in high terms of their entertainment and a royal musical treat is promised. The Knights of Pythias are to be congratulated on bringing so excellent an attraction as this one will prove to Stanford.

GOODWIN.—Mrs. Goodwin, of Livingston, died here Tuesday morning of a complication of troubles. She was a Miss Meadows, of Pine Hill and was an exceedingly handsome widow of about 25. Undertaker J. L. Beasley accompanied the remains to Woodbine, where they were interred. The Lady Macabees of Livingston took the body in charge at that place.

KELLEY.—Wright Kelley, one of Crab Orchard's best and most honorable citizens, died Wednesday of a complication of troubles, aged about 40. A wife and a married daughter survive. Mr. Kelley moved to Crab Orchard from Clay some six or eight years ago and during that time he made many friends who are privileged to give him up. He was a sterling democrat and that party will miss him, as will all who knew him.

PROSPECTS GOOD.—Judge W. E. Varson, who accompanied Judge M. C. Saufley and Mr. J. S. Hooker to Jellico to confer with Civil Engineer Crenshaw, concerning the building of the Southern road through Stanford, returned yesterday morning in high feather. Judge Saufley and Mr. Hooker went on to Knoxville. The gentlemen had the good fortune to meet at Jellico not only Mr. Crenshaw, but Mr. Wells, the chief engineer of the Southern system, and Mr. Miller, chief of the Southern division. They had very satisfactory talks with these gentlemen and gave them many reasons why it would be to the company's interest to build their connecting line this way. Judge Varson is very hopeful of good results and has every appearance of a man who thinks he knows something good. He says he thinks if the right-of-way can be secured through Lincoln, we will have no trouble in getting the road. Certainly we can not afford to let so small a matter make us lose so good a thing as the road will prove.

MATRIMONIAL.

C. F. HIGGINS and Miss Elizabeth Turley, of Richmond, will marry on the 16th.

Cleora Bastin and Miss Arminia Kidd were made one at J. H. Kidd's yesterday.

The gossips have it that Senator Blackburn is soon to marry a widow of the same name as his own, a resident of Washington city.

A. M. Kinnard, of Middleboro, and Miss Emma White, of Cumberland Gap, were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride. The marriage was one of the leading events of its kind this season. The bride and groom left for a tour of the Northwest, after which they will make their home in Memphis, Tenn.

Fulton Gordon, who killed his wife, and Arch Dixon Brown in Louisville five years ago, was married in Cincinnati to Miss Blanch May, of Louisville: something good.

Mr. Winston Withers, of this place and Miss Mary Powell, the pretty daughter of Capt. B. F. Powell, of this county, will be married at her home at 6:30 on the evening of the 23d.

Charles Perry Cecil, Jr., and Miss Virginia Mitcham Bowman were married at the Christian church in Danville Wednesday. Rev. Henry Clay Garrison officiating. It was a white and gold wedding. The decorations at the church and also at the residence of the bride, where a reception was held after the wedding, were superb. The maid of honor was Miss Josephine Reid of this city, the bridesmaids, Miss Clara Dailley and Miss Eleanor Coleman, of Lexington; Miss Susan McRoberts, Miss Mary M. Bell Englemae and Miss Katherine Reid, of Danville. Ernest VanWinkle was the best man and Horace Bowman, George McRoberts, W. C. Woodcock, Sam Cecil and Guy Wiseman the ushers. The groom, the bride and her maids were among the most elegant ever seen in Danville. An orchestra accompanied the organ in rendering the wedding march. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Mary Withers Bowman, and is one of the prettiest and most attractive girls in the Bluegrass. Mr. Cecil is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Cecil, of this county, and is a leading young business man of Danville. The couple leave at once for a tour of the East, and after the 25th will be at home at the Bowman residence in Danville.—Danville cor. C. J.

McKinley has joined the Elks and Roosevelt has affiliated with the Ma sons.

The demand for high class road horses is still increasing, and the right kind will bring good prices.
